San Fernando Valley Refugee Children Center, Inc. is a nonprofit corporation organized and operated exclusively for charitable purposes.

San Fernando Valley Refugee Children Center, Inc. is a nonprofit corporation organized and operated exclusively for charitable purposes for the representation for children who have come to the United States seeking refuge from the violence that plague their countries of birth. This program is conducted through the following activities: We provide case management services and legal aid for children who have arrived in the United States seeking refugee status. We collaborate with organizations such as CARECEN (Central American Resource Center) and ESPERANZA, Inc., and Counsel, who provide pro-bono attorneys for our children. When necessary, we pay "lo-bono" attorneys to represent our children. We provide dental, vision, medical and mental health providers willing to provide free services for our children. We provide, as we are able, legal representation. The sad fact is that without an attorney, 90% of these children will be deported back to their country of origin where they are likely to be in the first place. We also provide medical care and opportunities for socialization with other children here. We currently have a Welcome Center. Over 70 of them now have attorneys, but we need help to get legal representation for the rest. The several agencies that these children are pretty well maxed out at present. In these cases, we need to turn to "lo-bono" attorneys, immigration lawyers whose fees usually range from $2,500 to $5,000 per case. Donations received are used to pay for these attorneys so that each child has a fair chance.
